Hemp Bombs, a leading and trusted brand in the CBD industry, features a wide range of premium products from flavorful edibles to soothing topicals. Hemp Bombs is committed to quality during every step of the manufacturing process, which begins by sourcing the finest quality ingredients. Our CBD is derived from premium-grade Industrial Hemp grown on American farms. Each product is formulated with care by our team of in-house experts and manufactured at our production facilities in Tampa, FL.

Hemp Bombs products are lab tested at multiple checkpoints throughout the production process, and every batch is tested again by an independent third-party laboratory. These results are published on our website, and can be conveniently accessed by scanning the QR codes on our product labels.
